Yours truly.
James D. Richardson

Engraved by Augustus Fehr, N.Y.

Em. Sir James Daniel Richardson.

The zeal, energy and efficiency displayed by the Committee appointed to prepare and publish the Register of Tennessee Templars, have been evident to the membership since the Grand Commandery of 1879.

Certain members of the Grand Commandery desired, for their own sakes, to put before the readers of this volume the counterfeit presentment of that Committee, that those who honor him for the services he has rendered may know what manner of man he is.

A gentle intimation was given to him that a large number would like to have this done. He promptly declined, and begged that the subject be no more mentioned.

It was not again mentioned to him. A photograph, not as good a likeness of him to-day as might be made, was quietly procured, an engraving made, and the first intimation he will have of the picture and this writing will be when he shall see the bound volume.

It was due to him that this be said. We wanted him here. He refused. We did it. If we have wantonly interfered with the prerogative of the Committee, let the penalty be inflicted. If we have done well, commend us.

"I HAVE HERE MADE ONLY A NOSEGAY OF CULLED FLOWERS, AND HAVE BROUGHT NOTHING OF MY OWN BUT THE STRING THAT TIES THEM."

PREFACE.

This volume has been prepared by direction of the Grand Commandery of Tennessee.

It is the Templars of the Jurisdiction by rank and file ready for prompt inspection.

At the Annual Conclave in 1879 the Grand Commandery resolved "that the Right Eminent Grand Commander appoint a competent Knight to edit and compile a Register of the Templars of the State; that Subordinate Commanderies be requested to furnish this Knight at once a brief biographical sketch, not to exceed ten lines in length, of each present and past member thereof; at the same time that each Commandery furnish a short historical sketch of itself to be published in the same volume." It was further resolved by the Grand Commandery at that Conclave "that Sir James D. Richardson be appointed to perform the duty of preparing the Register."

This work was undertaken at once, and although nearly four years have passed, it has just been finished. The delay has been occasioned by the difficulty in getting the questions which were sent out to the various Commanderies answered by the Knights, and returned to the compiler.

After this was done, it was his work to rewrite and formulate properly the information obtained, and put the sketches in uniform shape for the publisher.

This he has done as best he could in hours taken from his profession, but the time and labor thus bestowed he does not regret.

He feels that he has thereby become better acquainted with the Templars of Tennessee, and if they are only satisfied with the effort he will feel amply compensated.

In a number of instances there appears simply the name of the Knight and the Commandery to which he belongs. Where this is the case, the name and historical sketch of the Knight were not furnished by his Commandery, and of course the compiler was forced to look alone to the printed proceedings of the Grand Commandery for the name and such other information as was there afforded.

Being determined that the name of every member should appear, however, he referred to the list of membership as published in the proceedings of 1882, and he believes the name of every Templar in the jurisdiction at that date, who was enrolled as a member of any Commandery, will appear in this volume.

There also appear the names of many who are not now members, some of whom are dead, and others dimitted. These sketches were furnished in such cases by the Subordinate Commanderies, and were therefore inserted.

The Grand Commandery, at its Annual Conclave in 1882, requested, by resolution, the Past Grand Commanders to furnish the compiler engravings of themselves for the Register. Application in person or by letter was made by the compiler to all Past Grand Commanders who are living, and to the family or friends of those who are dead, to furnish these pictures, and he deems it a matter of earnest congratulation to the Order that so many favorable responses were made. Thirteen splendid engravings appear in this volume, a feature which he trusts will add greatly to its attractiveness, and increase its value to Templars.

Brief histories of the Subordinate Commanderies, as directed by the Grand Commandery, are also inserted. These histories were furnished by the various Commanderies.

At the request of the compiler R. E. Sir Morton B. Howell, Past Grand Commander, prepared a history of the Grand Commandery of Tennessee, which is also published.

To name each one to whom acknowledgments should be made for kindnesses shown him in the preparation of this volume would require too much space, therefore, to all such, he tenders heartily his grateful thanks.

BRIEF HISTORIES

OF THE

Grand and Subordinate Commanderies.

GRAND COMMANDERY.

The Grand Commandery of Tennessee was organized on October 12, 1859, under warrant from the Grand Master of the Grand Encampment.

Three Commanderies—Nashville No. 1, Yorkville No. 2, and DeMolay No. 3—were represented. A fourth, Cyrene No. 4, of Memphis, existed, and sent proxies, but the parties named not being members of that Commandery, were not recognized as such.

No Conclaves were held in the years 1862, 1863 and 1864. In 1865 a few Sir Knights assembled and revived and re-established the Grand Commandery. From that year to the present it has grown with sure and steady increase in activity and force.

During the past ten years the number of active members of the Order in the State has not increased. This has been due to the fact that the old fogies who would not meet the requirements of the age, and refused to conform to the law in regard to equipment, drill and personal efficiency, have dropped out, in several instances by whole Commanderies together, and have left the bone and sinew of the Order to maintain its dignity.

The Commanderies now upon the roll are prosperous and flourishing.

The history of the Grand Commandery is contained in the nineteen pamphlets which have been issued from 1859 to 1882, bound copies of which are in the library of each Commandery in the State.

There seems now to be nothing in the way of its onward advancement. The intelligence and spirit of its members, judged by the progress of its living Subordinates, give safe ground to hope for continuing and increasing usefulness.

NASHVILLE COMMANDERY 1.

STATIONED AT NASHVILLE.

It is sufficiently evident, from the printed proceedings of the Grand Encampment of the United States, that, between the meetings of that body held in 1826 and 1829, a Dispensation was issued for the formation of an Encampment at Nashville, by M. E. Sir William Gibbes Hunt, General Grand Captain General.

At the Conclave held in New York, on September 18, 1826, Sir William Gibbes Hunt, of Nashville, Tennessee, was present, and was elected General Grand Captain General. What he represented, and where his membership was, we do not know. He died at Nashville about 1833.

It is certain that Sir Wilkins Tannehill was the prime mover in procuring this Dispensation. If the Encampment was organized under it no records have come down to us, and no one who knew the facts now lives.

At the meeting of the General Grand Encampment held at New Haven, Connecticut, September 10, 1844, M. E. Sir William J. Reese, General Grand Generalissimo, presented a written report, in which he said that during the summer of 1842 he had received several communications and a petition from a respectable number of Sir Knights at Nashville, Tennessee, asking for authority to resuscitate Nashville Encampment No. 1; from the statement of facts made by M. E. Sir Wilkins Tannehill, he doubted the propriety of granting the request during the recess of the Grand Encampment, and, after consultation with the Grand Recorder, had declined to act.

A special committee was appointed to consider the report and accompanying papers. This committee made the following report:

"In 1842 a petition to revive Nashville Encampment, Nashville, Tennessee, was presented to Sir Knight Reese. This Encampment was instituted by dispensation from Sir William G. Hunt, for which the usual fee was paid to him, but has long since ceased to exist. The petitioners now ask whether they are at liberty to reorganize under the old dispensation, or whether they must begin de novo. Your committee are of opinion that the decision of the M. E. Grand Generalissimo in the matter was correct, and that they must adopt the latter course."

On November 26, 1846, Nashville Encampment No. 1, was re-organized under a dispensation granted by M. E. Sir Joseph K. Stapleton, Deputy General Grand Master. The Sir Knights present at the opening meeting were—

WILKINS TANNEHILL.....Grand Commander.
THOMAS GOWDEY.....Generalissimo.
M. M. HENKLE.....Captain General.
J. THOMAS WHEAT.....Prelate.
DYER PEARL.....Senior Warden.
JAMES A. PORTER.....Junior Warden.
JOSEPH NORVELL.....Sec'y and Treasurer.
ROBERT BOYTE C. HOWELL.....Warder.
ELIHU S. HALL,
JESSE B. CLEMENTS.

The first four were named in the dispensation. The remainder were admitted as members at that meeting.

At the meeting of the General Encampment held at Columbus, Ohio, in September, 1847, a charter was granted to Nashville Encampment No. 1, under which it worked until the Grand Commandery of Tennessee was founded in 1859.

The following statistics of the Commandery are interesting. On November 26, 1846, there were ten members. The increase has been as follows:

Year.	Created.	Affiliated.	Total.	Year.	Created.	Affiliated.	Total.
1847	26	2	28	1867	15	3	18

There have been presented 485 petitions for Orders, and 36 for affiliation. Of these 438 were elected, 63 rejected, and 20 withdrawn.

DeMOLAY COMMANDERY 3.

STATIONED AT COLUMBIA.

DeMolay Commandery 3, Knights Templar, of Columbia, Tennessee, was formed December 19, 1858, A. O. 740, pursuant to a Dispensation of the General Grand Encampment of the United States, dated at Columbus, Ohio, and signed by the M. E. Grand Master, Sir Benjamin Brown Hubbard. The petitioners to the Grand Commandery were Sirs Lucius J. Polk, A. M. Hughes, John B. Hamilton, Joseph M. Towler, Lionel Hawkins, William H. Whiton, John H. Devereux, Samuel H. Jones, C. Foster Williams, W. G. J. Hunter and William R. Hodge. At the formation under Dispensation the following held office under appointment:

Sir LUCIUS J. POLK ..... Eminent Commander.
Sir A. M. HUGHES ..... Generalissimo.
Sir JOHN B. HAMILTON ..... Captain General.
Sir JOSEPH M. TOWLER ..... Prelate.
Sir JOHN H. DEVEREUX ..... Senior Warden.
Sir LIONEL HAWKINS ..... Junior Warden.
Sir WILLIAM R. HODGE ..... Treasurer.
Sir WILLIAM H. WHITON ..... Recorder.
Sir SAMUEL H. JONES ..... Warder.

At a regular organization under Charter, dated September 16, 1859, A. O. 741, the same officers were re-elected.

Subsequent to the war it was revived on the 31st day of May, 1867, A. O. 749, under the personal supervision of the R. E. Grand Commander of the State of Tennessee, Sir John McClelland, by the election and installation of the following officers, to wit:

Sir JOSEPH M. TOWLER.....Eminent Commander.
Sir J. B. HAMILTON.....Generalissimo.
Sir A. M. HUGHES.....Captain General.
Sir C. F. WILLIAMS.....Prelate.
Sir T. W. KEESEE.....Treasurer.
Sir W. L. I. WILKES.....Senior Warden.
Sir W. J. G. HUNTER.....Junior Warden.
Sir JESSE OAKES.....Sentinel.

DeMolay Commandery has been highly honored by the Grand Commandery, in having had three of its members elected to preside over that august body—R. E. Sir Lucius Junius Polk, deceased, R. E. Sir Joseph Megowan Towler and R. E. Sir Joseph Henry Fussell.

MEMPHIS COMMANDERY 4.

STATIONED AT MEMPHIS.

Memphis Commandery 4, successor to Cyrene Commandery 4, held its first conclave in the Hall of Angerona Lodge 168, in the city of Memphis, Thursday, May 12, A. D. 1859, A. O. 741, by virtue of letters of dispensation bearing date March 25, same year, signed by W. B. Hubbard, then Grand Master of the Grand Encampment of the United States. In the letters of dispensation were named the following Sir Knights: Charles Scott, Stephen T. Costen, James Penn, Henry S. King, Doyal Pearson, John Blackwell, M. S. Fielder, S. B. Jones, Joseph F. Gibson, O. K. Donohue, H. Lemon, J. Knox Walker and T. J. Drane. The Grand Master's appointments being Sir James Penn, Eminent Commander; Sir J. J. Worsham, Generalissimo; Sir R. T. Redmond, Captain General.

At the first Conclave held on the foregoing date, the following were the officers:

Sir JAMES PENN ..... Eminent Commander.
Sir J. J. WORSHAM ..... Generalissimo.
Sir CHARLES SCOTT ..... Captain General.
Sir T. J. DRANE ..... Prelate.
Sir H. P. WOODWARD ..... Senior Warden.
Sir FEAM PENN ..... Junior Warden.
Sir S. F. COSTEN ..... Treasurer.
Sir M. S. FIELDER ..... Recorder.
Sir H. S. KING ..... Standard Bearer.
Sir O. K. DONOHUE ..... Sword Bearer.
Sir H. LEMON ..... Warder.
Sir F. F. BOWEN ..... as Sentinel.

The charter was issued to Cyrene Commandery 4, Knights Templar, September 16, A. D. 1859, A. O. 741, and signed by B. B. French, Grand Recorder, and letters issued by B. B. French, Grand Master, dated September 20, 1859, nominating, appointing and constituting Sir Giles M. Hillyer, of Mississippi, his proxy to install the officers of Cyrene Commandery 4 under the charter, which was accordingly so done on September 28, 1859, the following being the first officers elected and installed under the charter issued by the Grand Master of the United States:

Sir JAMES PENN ..... Eminent Commander.
Sir J. J. WORSHAM ..... Generalissimo.
Sir CHARLES SCOTT ..... Captain General.
Rev. Sir T. J. DRANE ..... Prelate.
Sir H. P. WOODWARD ..... Senior Warden.
Sir FEAM PENN ..... Junior Warden.
Sir J. J. MURPHY ..... Treasurer.
Sir W. H. FITCH, JR ..... Recorder.
Sir H. LEMON ..... Warder.

The first year's work consisted of conferring the Orders on ten applicants and receiving five affiliates. One Sir Knight died and one withdrew.

This Commandery steadily increased in numbers and usefulness in disseminating the principles of our beloved Order.

In 1874 St. Elmo Commandery 15 was formed by a sufficient number of fratres withdrawing from Cyrene Commandery to do so, and in 1880 the two Commanderies became united under the name of Memphis Commandery 4, which retained her charter and number, but changed the name. In 1882 the former members of St. Elmo Commandery 15 again withdrew and asked for a restoration of their charter and number, which was granted by the Grand Commandery in 1882.

Memphis Commandery has upon her rolls the names of many eminent in the history of Templarism in the State of Tennessee, and has achieved a record for integrity and unsullied honor of which she is properly and justly proud.

The following is an extract from the records of the Commandery:

"HONORARY MEMBERS.

"The following Sir Knights of Boston Commandery 2, Massachusetts, were elected honorary members for kind and knightly attention to our deceased frater, Sir W. J. Murray, during his illness and at his funeral service in Boston in 1876: E. Sir Samuel Mason, Jr., Sir Zephania H. Thomas and Sir James H. Upham, to rank respectively as Past Commander, Past Generalissimo and Past Captain General."

BALDWIN COMMANDERY 7.

STATIONED AT LEBANON.

A dispensation for the formation of a Commandery of Knights Templar in the town of Lebanon was granted by R. E. Sir Amasa S. Underwood, Grand Commander of the State of Tennessee, on March 27, 1866. The Sir Knights authorized by the dispensation to constitute the new Commandery were

Sir DAVID COOK, SR. . . . . Eminent Commander,
Sir JORDAN E. WHITE . . . . . Generalissimo,
Sir ARCHIE NORRIS . . . . . Captain General, together with Sir Knights William H. Armstrong, Thompson Anderson, William Atwell, John McClelland, John Frizzell, Thomas J. Webb, and Wade H. Goodwin.

The Commandery was organized on Friday, June 15, 1866, by the distinguished Sir Charles A. Fuller, Grand Recorder, acting as proxy for the Grand Commander. On this and the next two days the following companions were Knighted: Joseph M. Anderson, Joseph T. Manson, David Cook, Jr., Alexander W. Vick, William H. Orr, William A. Caruthers, Leopold Drifoos, A. J. M. Chandler, Andrew B. Martin, W. W. Seay, and Thomas M. Edwards.

At the meeting of the next Grand Commandery a charter was granted to the new organization under the name of Baldwin Commandery 7. The charter bears date December 10, 1866, and is signed by R. E. Sir John McClelland, Grand Commander; R. E. Sir William Maxwell, Deputy Grand Commander; E. Sir J. M. Gilbert, Grand Generalissimo; E. Sir J. L. Strickland, Grand Captain General, and Sir Charles A. Fuller, Grand Recorder.

Since its organization this Commandery has kept in good working condition, and has conferred the Orders of Knighthood upon eighty-seven companions. It entertained the Grand Commandery in 1872, and will again enjoy that honor during the present year, 1883.

The names of the Eminent Commanders, and the years during which they held the office, are as follows: Sir David Cook, Sr., 1866–'67–'68–'70–'71–'74; Sir Andrew B. Martin, 1869; Sir W. H. Darnall, 1872–'75–'79; Sir A. W. Vick, 1873; Sir G. R.

Gwynn, 1876–'77–'78; Sir S. G. Stratton, 1880–'81; Sir J. M. Fakes, 1882.

The Sir Knights of this Commandery who are past or present officers of the Grand Commandery are as follows: Sir David Cook, Sr., Past Deputy Grand Commander; Sir J. M. Anderson, Past Deputy Grand Commander; Sir W. H. Darnall, Past Grand Prelate; Sir J. W. Fitzgerald, Grand Prelate (1883); Sir G. R. Gwynn, Grand Generalissimo (1883).

Among the eminent men whose names are now or have been upon the roll of this Commandery, we mention as first in honor, Sir David Cook, Sr., who was a zealous Mason and an enthusiastic and courteous Knight. He was its first Eminent Commander, and was elected to that place of honor no less than six times within eight years. He received the Orders of Knighthood in Village Commandery, Massachusets, and was perhaps the oldest Knight Templar in Tennessee. Upon the list we find also the names of Sir Joseph M. Anderson, Past Deputy Grand Commander, and Past Grand Master of Tennessee; Sir W. H. Darnall, three times Eminent Commander and once Grand Prelate; Sir G. R. Gwynn, three times Eminent Commander and now Grand Generalissimo; Sir Ewin Burney, of Nashville; Sir J. D. Richardson, Past Grand Master, of Murfreesboro; Sir Robert Cantrell, Circuit Judge, and Sir Henry Cooper, United States Senator.

CLARKSVILLE COMMANDERY 8.

STATIONED AT CLARKSVILLE.

In 1867 there were in Clarksville, Tennessee, a number of Knights Templar hailing from different Commanderies. They determined to apply for a charter to organize a Commandery. The charter was promptly granted by the R. E. Grand Commander, and a Commandery duly organized by Sir Knight T. A. Thomas acting as Generalissimo, and being duly empowered by the R. E. Grand Commander. The Commandery thus duly organized having taken all necessary steps to secure an Asylum and other necessary appendages of the Order, appointed a conclave for November 7th, to elect officers, etc. At this conclave the following officers were elected:

Sir A. D. SEARS.....Eminent Commander.
Sir T. A. THOMAS.....Generalissimo.
Sir M. MATTILL.....Captain General.
Sir W. H. ARMSTRONG.....Prelate.
Sir S. CRABTREE.....Senior Warden.
Sir D. B. HADDEN.....Junior Warden.
Sir J. W. READ.....Recorder.

The election of the remaining officers was referred to the next regular conclave. A committee on By-Laws and Commandery regulations was appointed.

On the 27th of December, on a visit of the R. E. Grand Commander, he delivered a Masonic address at the Presbyterian church, and then proceeded to install, in regular form, the officers of the Commandery; after which the Commandery was formed into an escort to the other Masonic bodies. The procession marched to the corner of Madison and Sixth streets, when, in the presence of a large assemblage of people, the R. E. Grand Commander laid the corner-stone of the First Baptist Church in Clarksville. During the year 1868 the Commandery was very active, and it was highly prosperous. The published returns to the Grand Commandery show that thirty were dubbed and created Knights of the Order. The second year's history of the Commandery shows that twenty-one were dubbed and created Knights of the Order. At the annual conclave of the Grand Commandery in 1870, Sir Knight A. D. Sears, Eminent Commander of Clarksville Commandery, was elected R. E. Grand Commander of the Knights Templar of Tennessee. From May, 1871, to May, 1872, there were dubbed and created four Knights of the Order. From May, 1872, to May, 1876, although the meetings of the several conclaves are regularly recorded, the records fail to show the returns to the Grand Commandery. This year, 1876, the returns show that there were dubbed and created three Knights of the Order. During the years of 1876–7 the spirit of Masonry suffered a great decline in Clarksville. Of course the Knights Templar felt the effect of this decline in the lower bodies. In addition to this quite a number of the young and enterprising members of the Order removed from Clarksville. These and other causes discouraged the members of the Order to such an extent that it became difficult to gather a quorum at the conclaves. In 1879 a change was made in the official relation of most of the officers of the Commandery. At the annual election this year, Sir Knight A. D. Sears, who had been annually elected Eminent Commander from the organization of the Commandery, refused longer to serve in that capacity, and the following officers were elected:

Sir C. E. McCauley.....Eminent Commander.
Sir J. C. Read.....Generalissimo.
Sir G. B. Wilson.....Captain General.
Sir A. D. Sears.....Prelate.
Sir J. E. Riche.....Treasurer.
Sir F. S. Williams.....Recorder.
Sir L. B. Stewart.....Senior Warden.
Sir D. Kincannon.....Junior Warden.
Sir J. S. Hamlett.....Standard Bearer.
Sir J. D. Sloan.....Sword Bearer.
Sir W. McComb.....Captain of the Guard.

Sir Knight McCauley was re-elected Eminent Commander at the annual conclave in 1880. At the annual conclave in 1881, Sir Knight G. B. Wilson was elected Eminent Commander, and at the regular conclave of the Grand Commandery of Tennessee of the same year, he was elected Grand Senior Warden of the Grand Commandery of Tennessee, and he was re-elected to the same position at the Grand Conclave in 1882.

At the regular conclave in December, 1881, the following officers were elected:

Sir W. J. Ely.....Eminent Commander.
Sir J. C. Read.....Generalissimo.
Sir W. McComb.....Captain General.
Sir A. D. Sears.....Prelate.
Sir S. B. Stewart.....Senior Warden.
Sir F. S. Williams.....Junior Warden.
Sir G. B. Wilson.....Treasurer.
Sir J. D. Moon.....Recorder.
Sir J. S. Lee.....Standard Bearer.
Sir T. McMannus.....Sword Bearer.
Sir J. J. Rawls.....Warder.
Sir J. L. Kerr.....Captain of the Guard.

Sir Knight Joshua Brown having died at Lebanon, Ohio, and after his remains had been buried by the Knights of the Order in the City Cemetery, the Commandery, in appreciation of the character and age of this departed brother, passed the following: This page of the records of Clarksville Commandery 8, of the Grand Jurisdiction of Tennessee, is dedicated to the memory of Sir Joshua Brown, who was born in Nelson county, Kentucky, A. D. 1800; was dubbed and created a Knight Templar in Clarksville Commandery in 1867, and departed this life at Lebanon, Warren county, Ohio, on the 26th day of June, 1882. Integrity, accuracy, honesty and faithfulness were his most prominent characteristics; and his gentleness, suavity and kindness made him the loved and honored of all with whom he mingled. "Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make the ruler over many things; enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

Clarksville Commandery at this date is again enjoying prosperity. A number of young and enterprising men have recently been dubbed and created Knights of the Order, and the outlook is promising, and we may reasonably look forward to a future of prosperity.

CŒUR DE LION COMMANDERY 9,

STATIONED AT KNOXVILLE.

Cœur de Lion Commandery 9, Knights Templar, was organized by dispensation granted by R. E. Sir John Frizzell, Grand Commander of this State, and the charter members were—Sir Knights John W. Paxton, DeMolay Commandery, Virginia; William Morrow, Johnson Commandery 4, Virginia; Joseph R. Anderson, J. C. Hammers, L. H. Johnson, A. L. Maxwell, I. A. Nichols, J. C. Robinson, Jay Spurritt, and D. G. Thornburg.

The first Conclave was held in Masonic Hall in this city, under the dispensation granted as above stated, on the 5th day of May, 1868, with the following Sir Knights as officers pro tempore: J. B. Morris, of Nashville Commandery, as Eminent Commander; William Morrow, of Johnson Commandery, as Generalissimo; John W. Paxton, of DeMolay Commandery, as Captain General; M. B. Pilcher, of Nashville Commandery, as Prelate; S. Kirkpatrick, of Nashville Commandery, as Senior Warden; John W. Morton, of Nashville Commandery, as Warder; William Aiken, of Cypress Commandery, as Sentinel.

The following named companions were duly and constitutionally elected to the Orders of Knighthood at this Conclave: W. H. Lillard, C. Turner, S. B. Dow, H. M. Aiken, S. H. Davis, James B. Pickens, Spencer Munson, A. C. Putnam, John W. Cruze, U. A. Rouser, J. C. Cawood, W. C. Hazen and Joseph A. Mabry.

The following named Sir Knights were appointed officers to serve until their successors should be elected:

Sir JOHN W. PAXTON.....Eminent Commander.
Sir WILLIAM MORROW.....Generalissimo.
Sir A. L. MAXWELL.....Captain General.
Sir W. H. LILLARD.....Prelate.
Sir H. M. AIKEN.....Senior Warden.
Sir S. B. DOW.....Junior Warden.
Sir SPENCER MUNSON.....Recorder.
Sir JOSEPH A. MABRY.....Treasurer.
Sir U. A. ROUSER.....Standard Bearer.
Sir WILLIAM RULE.....Sword Bearer.
Sir H. C. HAWKINS.....Warder.
Sir JOHN W. CRUZE.....Sentinel.

From the best information attainable at this time, there were about forty members admitted in the Commandery up to the date of March 9, 1869, at which time a fire occurred, destroying all the furniture, arms, records and charter belonging to the Commandery, a severe loss, which amounted to about two thousand dollars.

The Commandery worked under dispensation until September 29, 1868, when a charter was granted by the Grand Commandery. In December, 1868, the first officers were elected and installed in this Commandery, and were as follows:

Sir JOHN W. PAXTON.....Eminent Commander.
Sir A. C. PUTNAM.....Generalissimo.
Sir A. W. SMITH.....Captain General.
Sir W. H. LILLARD.....Prelate.
Sir SPENCER MUNSON.....Recorder.
Sir WILLIAM MORROW.....Treasurer.
Sir N. S. WOODWARD.....Senior Warden.
Sir S. B. DOW.....Junior Warden.
Sir H. C. HAWKINS.....Warder.
Sir C. TURNER.....Standard Bearer.
Sir R. V. DEADRICK.....Sword Bearer.
Sir JOHN W. CRUZE.....
Sir S. H. DAVIS..... } Guards.
Sir W. C. HAZEN.....

A notable event in the history of this Commandery was the annual meeting of the Grand Commandery at this place on the 9th and 10th days of June, 1881, at which time they were entertained by Cœur de Lion Commandery.

The membership of this Commandery at this date is sixty.

MURFREESBORO COMMANDERY 10.

STATIONED AT MURFREESBORO.

This Commandery, located at Murfreesboro, from which it takes its name, was chartered by the Grand Commandery at its Annual Conclave in May, 1870. It was regularly constituted on the 12th of July following, V. E. Sir David Cook, Sr., Deputy Grand Commander, officiating, assisted by Sir Knights Andrew B. Martin and Alexander W. Vick, all of Baldwin Commandery 7. The first officers were—

Sir JOSEPH BENJAMIN PALMER...Eminent Commander.
Sir JAMES DANIEL RICHARDSON..Generalissimo.
Sir JAMES BRICKELL MURFREE...Captain General.

Sir Knight Palmer served as Commander 1870 and 1871, since which time Sir James D. Richardson has served continuously in that office, except one year, 1876, when Sir Knight Murfree was Commander.

This body has grown steadily since its organization, and now has upon its roll of membership seventy-two names. It has three times furnished a Grand Commander—R. E. Sirs J. B. Palmer in 1873, William R. Butler in 1876, and William D. Robinson in 1882. Thus, in the twelve years of its existence, it has for one-fourth of the time furnished from its membership the first officer in the Grand Commandery, an honor not heretofore conferred upon any Subordinate Commandery in the Jurisdiction.

The Commandery has been greatly blessed in its membership in point of health, as it has lost by death only six members since it was organized. This historian will not boast that his Commandery and its members are celebrated for their deeds of charity and pure benificence, nor that more has been done than should have been done by them for the helpless orphan and our christian religion, but he can safely say that the gentler sex have not been neglected. As evidence of this fact it is only necessary to say, that of the ninety-two members, past and present, of the Commandery only three of them have reached its Asylum without having, as pilgrim warriors, perhaps pilgrim penitents, worn the matrimonial robes. These three would doubtless be able to show to an investigating committee satisfactory evidence that they had presented petitions properly recommended, but that they had been duly and constitutionally rejected.

The membership of the Commandery, past and present, is made up as follows:

Lawyers	14	Farmers	21
Millers	3	Preachers	11
Merchants	20	Mechanics	5
Physicians	11	Bankers	3

The Commandery has received since its organization by affiliation seven, and has lost by dimit eight members. Its stated Conclaves are the fourth Monday night of each month.

DEPAYENS COMMANDERY 11.

STATIONED AT FRANKLIN.

On petition of Joseph Leonard Parkes, Atha Thomas, James Park Hanner and Charles Fleming Wall, of Nashville Commandery 1, and Sirs Mark Lial Andrews, Reuben P. Hayes, Samuel Henderson, John W. Miller, James B. Davis, William D. Hardeman, William Alex. Steele, W. T. Bennett, DeWitt C. Douglas and William Graham Clenston, who had received the Orders in the same Commandery, but were non-affiliates, together with Sir Thomas Andrew Pope, of Bristol Commandery under Jurisdiction of Virginia, and Sir Watson Meredith Gentry, of Montgomery Commandery, under Jurisdiction of Alabama, which petition was recommended by Nashville Commandery 1, a dispensation was granted on the 25th day of October, 1870, by R. E. Sir Achilles D. Sears, Grand Commander, to hold a Commandery at Franklin, Williamson county. The petitioners on receiving the dispensation held a convention at Masonic Hall, in Franklin, on December 5, 1870, and organized the new Commandery.

A charter was granted to this Commandery under the title of DePayens Commandery 11, on May 10, A. D. 1871, A. O. 753, and on May 23, A. D. 1871, A. O. 753, the Commandery was duly instituted by R. E. Sir George Stodart Blackie, Grand Commander.

Sir Mark L. Andrews was the Eminent Commander named under the dispensation, and Sir Atha Thomas was the first Eminent Commander elected. Sir James Park Hanner and Sir Joseph Leonard Parkes were his successors in the order named.

Of the original petitioners four are dead, and only five are now members of the Commandery.

PULASKI COMMANDERY 12.

STATIONED AT PULASKI.

Pulaski Commandery 12, Knights Templar, was organized under a warrant or dispensation from R E. Achilles D. Sears, Grand Commander of the State of Tennessee, April 26, A. D. 1871, with the following Sir Knights as charter members, to wit:

Sir JAMES MCCALLUM.....as Eminent Commander,
Sir ELIHU EDMUNDSON.....as Generalissimo,
Sir GUSTAVUS ADOLPHUS POPE..as Captain General,

together with Sirs H. C. Bate, J. B. Childers, Thomas M. Jones, W. D. Orr, W. J. Craig, G. P. Jackson, assisted by R. E. Sir J. M. Towler, Sirs W. B. Gordon and Jesse Oakes, of DeMolay Commandery 3, Columbia, Tennessee.

At the first Conclave the petition of Sir A. C. KcKissack, dimitted from Holly Springs, Mississippi, was received and he was admitted; also the Orders were conferred upon the following companions: W. J. Parkes, John C. Brown and J. A. Bowers.

Having received a charter from the Grand Commandery at its Annual Conclave, May 10, A. D. 1871, the officers of the Commandery were duly and regularly installed May 26, 1871, by R. E. Sir J. M. Towler, Past Grand Commander.

Subsequently the following companions have received the Orders in this Commandery, to wit: J. D. Baugh, J. R. Beasley, Charles Buford, W. R. Craig, J. S. Childers, W. S. Ezell, D. C. Gordon, G. W. Cox, H. Arrowsmith, W. A. Gilmore, J. L. Hill, C. P. Jones, T. G. Jones, J. Y. Lucas, W. H. McCallum, W. C. Nelson, Noble Smithson, J. A. Sumpter, W. G. Lewis, W. D. Morris, N. H. White, J. P. McGuire, I. C. Martin, John Martin, W. E. Lacey, H. H. Aymett, R. A. Mitchell, S. E. F. Rose, T. E. Stout, H. M. Stanley, J. H. Keeling, E. T. Taliaferro, E. J. Childers, A. W. Downer and T. J. Duncan, by dimit from Clarksville Commandery 8.

The following Sir Knights have been granted a dimit: W. G. Lewis, J. H. Keeling, W. E. Lacey, J. P. McGuire, J. A. Sumpter, W. J. Parkes, T. J. Duncan and H. C. Bate.

Sir James McCallum was succeeded by Sir Gustavus A. Pope as Eminent Commander at the first stated or annual Conclave in October, 1871, who served four successive years, and was succeeded by Sir Elihu Edmundson, who served one year and was succeeded by Sir Alexander C. McKissack, who served one year, when Past Commander Gustavus A. Pope was re-elected, again serving four years, and was succeeded by Sir Charles Buford, who is now serving his second year.

A large majority of the charter members were formerly members of DeMolay Commandery 3, consequently an unusual warmth of courteous and fraternal feeling existed between the two Commanderies, and for a number of years we entertained alternately, very much to the pleasure and enjoyment of both.

As a Commandery, we acknowledge our obligations for the kind and efficient services rendered by Past Grand Commanders Towler and Blackie.

We have reason to be thankful for the health and prosperity of the Commandery, having had but one death since its organization, that of Sir James Austin Bowers, who died at his residence in Elkton, July 13, 1878.

The Grand Commandery honored us with the Annual Conclave in May, 1879. The address of R. E. Sir W. F. Foster, the drill, and their intercourse with the citizens made a very favorable and lasting impression upon the community. Whilst our entertainment of the Grand Commandery, owing to our limited means, was not all that we could have desired, yet it was none the less cordial. We believe that our Commandery, and hope the Order generally, have been benefitted by the meeting at this place.

The Commandery is in a good financial condition, having thirty-five members all fully equipped.

We extend to our sister Commanderies and to all valliant and magnanimous Knights throughout the State our brotherly love and fraternal greeting.

JACKSON COMMANDERY 13.

STATIONED AT JACKSON.

Jackson Commandery 13, Knights Templar, is located at Jackson, Tennessee, a thriving city of seven or eight thousand inhabitants. A charter was granted this Commandery May 10, 1872, and it organized June 17, 1872, with the following charter members: James Bright, John Chester, W. S. Calloway, William M. Dunaway, T. H. Garrett, J. A. Heard, L. B. Herron, W. F. Henry, Aaron Hey, E. J. Hostetter, A. W. Jones, W. H. McAdoo, J. O. Sullivan, F. D. Theus, W. D. Wilkerson, Sr., and E. P. Watkins.

The following were the first officers of this Commandery:

Sir JOHN CHESTER.....Eminent Commander.
Sir W. M. DUNAWAY.....Generalissimo.
Sir J. A. HEARD.....Captain General.
Sir W. D. WILKERSON.....Prelate.
Sir L. B. HERRON.....Senior Warden.
Sir W. F. HENRY.....Junior Warden,
Sir T. H. GARRETT.....Treasurer.
Sir J. L. BROWN.....Recorder.
Sir W. S. CALLOWAY.....Standard Bearer.
Sir F. D. THEUS.....Sword Bearer.
Sir AARON HEY.....Warder.

The effort to obtain a charter for this Commandery met considerable opposition from Brownsville Commandery, which at that time held territorial jurisdiction over this locality, but the Sir Knights who made the application for the charter felt as every true lover of Knighthood feels when he thinks the good of the Order is promoted by the accomplishment of a worthy object, and zealously pressed their cause for more than two years, at which time they proved triumphant, and their efforts were crowned with success. The labor of the first decade of its history demonstrates the wisdom and foresight of its organizers. Of this noble, earnest band of Fratres, the death roll is as follows: John Chester, W. S. Calloway, W. M. Dunaway, L. B. Herron and W. D. Wilkerson. The present roll exhibits these names: T. H. Garrett, W. F, Henry, A. W. Jones, W. H. McAdoo, F. D. Theus and James Bright. The others have moved beyond this Jurisdiction. The progress of this Commandery has been from the beginning steady, onward and true; commencing with a membership of sixteen, it now has seventy-one, and in Tennessee it stands near the head of the list in point of numbers. In ten years there have been seventy-seven gallant and courteous Knights created.

The following have served as Eminent Commanders: John Chester, A. B. Jones, W. P. Robertson, A. W. Jones, B. R. Harris and J. M. McGlathery, present Commander.

The following have been Grand Officers: John Chester, Grand Senior Warden; A. B. Jones, Grand Captain General; W. P. Robertson, Grand Captain General and Deputy Grand Commander.

The zeal and ambition of this Commandery led them to compete for a drill prize at Memphis in 1877, and at Nashville in 1878. This Commandery attended the Twenty-first Triennial Conclave of the Grand Encampment of the United States, held at Chicago, August, 1880. Equipments are complete and elegant.

In regard to the material of membership and style of work of this Commandery, this extract is from the report of V. E. Sir W. D. Robison, Deputy Grand Commander, signed May 18, 1881:

"Jackson Commandery is made up of a noble and live set of men, and they perform their work with that degree of earnestness and decorum which should ever characterize the actions of men when engaged in the solemn services of our Order."

LOOKOUT COMMANDERY 14.

STATIONED AT CHATTANOOGA.

A dispensation was issued on the 26th day of October, 1872, to ten Knights Templar, residents of Chattanooga, by R. E. Sir Joseph B. Palmer, Grand Commander Knights Templar of Tennessee, empowering Sirs S. B. Settle, G. C. Connor and John B. Weaver, as the three principal officers, to form Lookout Commandery 14.

On the 1st of February, 1873, Sir S. B. Settle resigned the office of Eminent Commander, and Grand Commander Palmer appointed Sir G. C. Connor in his stead, and Sir J. B. Nicklin was appointed Generalissimo in place of Sir G. C. Connor, promoted.

The first report to the Grand Commandery, May 1, 1873, gave a total membership of 27. There were seventeen Knights dubbed the first year. The Treasurer's report showed $443 worth of paraphernalia on hand, and $174 in the Treasury.

On the 6th of May, 1875, the Grand Commandery began its Annual Conclave with Lookout Commandery, which continued for two days. The total membership was thirty-three, no less than four Sir Knights having passed away since the organization. At this Grand Conclave there were present one hundred and thirty-five visiting Knights, together with all the Grand officers save one. They were accompanied by sixty-five ladies.

Since that time Lookout has had to pass through the purgative process. The accession to its ranks has been steady, but the painful necessity has been laid upon them of suspending five Knights from the Organization to date, April 1, 1883, a period of eleven years. Death has called away six, and five have been honorably discharged. The total membership at this date is forty-two.

The honors of the Order have been liberally bestowed on the Sir Knights of Lookout. R. E. Sir George C. Connor was chosen Grand Commander in 1879, and Rev. Sir H. H. Sneed has been chosen Grand Prelate three times. E. Sir John B. Nicklin is now the Grand Captain General.

The prospects of this Commandery are bright and flattering, its motto being Nulli Secundus.

ST. ELMO COMMANDERY 15.

STATIONED AT MEMPHIS.

Upon a petition dated October 23, 1874, a dispensation under date of November 3, 1874, was granted to Sir B. F. Haller, as Eminent Commander; Sir P. M. Stanley, as Generalissmo, and Sir John W. Graham, as Captain General, to organize St. Elmo Commandery 15, the remaining petitioners being Sirs Charles W. Mosby, R. W. Shelton, George D. Crockett, Robert W. Galloway, Charles H. Karr, James Dixon, Andrew J. Wheeler and A. V. Warr.

Organization was effected November 5th, and its first stated Conclave U. D. held December 15, 1874, when nine petitions for the Orders were received, together with one for membership.

On May 7, 1875, a charter was granted by the Grand Commandery of the State, and on May 18, St. Elmo Commandery was duly constituted, by authority of R. E. Sir H. M. Aiken, Grand Commander of the State, by Sir Ed. Worsham, Grand Generalissimo.

On Friday, May 3, 1878, in the Public Square at Nashville, St. Elmo Commandery competed with Cyrene, Murfreesboro and Jackson Commanderies for proficiency in the Templar drill. The prize, a beautifully designed and wrought Commander's jewel, was awarded and presented to St. Elmo Commandery 15.

In 1880 the membership of St. Elmo Commandery had reached thirty-six, she was flourishing in every respect and in sound financial condition, but believing that if the Templars of Memphis could be united in one body their power for usefulness would be increased, on February 7th she voluntarily surrendered her charter, and her entire membership was elected by acclamation into the body of Cyrene Commandery 4, which then changed its name to Memphis Commandery 4, retaining its old charter. This irregular action, although confirmed by the Grand Commandery at Columbia the same year, did not accomplish the measure of good which was anticipated, and after a trial of about seventeen months, on June 28, 1881, almost the whole of the old membership dimitted, and, under section 8, clause 6, Code of Statutes of the Grand Encampment of the United States, applied to the R. E. Grand Commander for, and received back, her old charter, reorganizing by the election of officers, and resuming her old status at once.

The power of the R. E. Grand Commander to thus restore a charter being disputed, the matter came before the Grand Commandery at its next Annual Conclave in May, 1882, and whilst that body for technical reasons did not endorse the action of the Grand Commander, it restored, of its own power, her charter to St. Elmo Commandery and confirmed all the acts of the Commandery since the date of its rehabilitation.

St. Elmo Commandery 15 has since its organization been remarkable for its tenacity of purpose, its unity and campactness, and for its zeal. The result has shown itself in its proficiency in drill and work, and in the strong esprit de corps which has manifested itself on all occasions. From her body was drawn fourteen out of the eighteen Sir Knights which constituted the winning drill corps of Memphis Commandery 4 in the competitive drill for a Commander's sword, held June 10, 1881, at Knoxville; and as St. Elmo Commandery 15 she drilled at Monteagle in 1882, no one competing, and received the award of a Libation Service for her proficiency.

The officers of St. Elmo Commandery for 1882–3 are

Sir ROBERT W. GALLOWAY.....Eminent Commander.
Sir G. V. RAMBAUT.....Generalissimo.
Sir N. B. CAMP.....Captain General.
Sir D. C. MOONEY.....Senior Warden.
Sir JOHN C. BARRY.....Junior Warden.
Rev. Sir ROBERT H. MAHON....Prelate.
Sir JOHN M. YOUNG.....Treasurer.
Sir JOHN D. HUHN.....Recorder.
Sir H. W. HOLLE.....Standard Bearer.
Sir W. S. JONES.....Sword Bearer.
Sir W. R. SIMS.....Warder.
Sir P. M. STANLEY.....Sentinel.

Past Commanders: Sirs B. F. Haller, A. J. Wheeler, C. W. Mosby and N. W. Speers, Jr.

Total membership, forty-three.
